I St. John's Grand Lodge.—An invitation having been extended by the Common Council of this city to all Masonit bods, in connection with other Societies, to join in the Procession to take place on the 25th inst. In honor of our late and lamented Brother WILLIAM J. WORTH to convey his remains from Greenwood Cemetery to the receptacie selected by the authorities of this city. I have consulted with my associate officers of St John's Grand Lodge, and we have some to the unanimous conclusion that, as the hanner of this Grand Lodge was unfurled in 1849, and the members under its jurisdiction rallied around it, with the M. W. G. Master, Henry C. Atwood, at their head and, by special invitation of the Common Council, paid the LAST tribute of respect and esteem and the usual ceremenies were there performed in ample form, our duties to him as a Masonic body were then ended. Our only remaining duties are to attend to the wants (if any) of his widow and or phasa. With these opinions of my associates I do most cheerfully concer, and embrace this opportunity to return my individual thanks, and those of the fraternity under this jurisdiction, to the Common Council for their kind invitation, and would respectfully request all our members to join the procession as citizens, in honor of our Ismented brother and noble chief.
